

CANBERRA

AECOM First Nations Scholarship 2022

We're offering a First Nations future infrastructure professional the amount of $5,000 for the first year of their tertiary or vocational education.

To apply, please send your CV by 31st August 2022.

Art by
Bianca
Gardiner
Dodd

About AECOM

AECOM is committed to supporting First Nations communities through our work and the role we play as a global infrastructure leader. This commitment includes respectful engagement with First Nations peoples, governments, businesses and lands.

At AECOM we tailor our roles to work for you and your priorities. We believe in creating an environment where you can be your best self. We prioritise a great work culture, creating a fun and engaging work environment.

We offer career development and mentoring for every staff member, and social and wellbeing opportunities. We have been recognised for our commitment to gender equity, value diversity and flexible work.

AECOM is an infrastructure consulting business, providing diverse services to our clients across the whole spectrum of a project lifecycle, from ideation to construction and operation. Located in the National Capital but with locations all over Australia and globally, AECOM Canberra focuses on Federal and State Government clients. Our Canberra business is a significant contributor to the local and broader Australian economies.

We are a highly diversified business. We embrace people from different academic backgrounds, including science, law, environmental studies, business, economics, marketing, communications, psychology, engineering and drafting. We are also a gender diverse business, a leader in our field, with over 46% female staff. Additionally, over 40% of our people are from culturally diverse background.

Scholarship

AECOM is offering a First Nations future infrastructure professional the amount of $5,000 for the first year of their tertiary or vocational education.

We will additionally offer paid work experience and mentoring for the successful candidate.

Eligibility criteria

AECOM is offering a First Nations scholarship to an individual who meets the following selection criteria:

- Year 12 High School or 1st Year University student who has successfully enrolled in a relevant Bachelors Degree or Diploma with the Australian National University, University of Canberra or Canberra Institute of Technology;
- Identifies as a First Nations person, and;
- Has an interest and passion for excelling in one of the following areas.

Project Management – lead, drive, deliver and measure the benefits of our exciting projects and programs;

Infrastructure Advisory – collaborate, ideate, co-design, challenge and create as part of advisory services on infrastructure;

Infrastructure Design – design systems, stations, interchanges, precincts, buildings, services, structures, light rail, roads etc;

Digital Engineering – coordinate, document and deliver our infrastructure designs through leading-edge digital tools and platforms; or,

Environmental Consulting – advise on nationally significant climate change, sustainability and environmental strategies.

Application requirements:

To apply, please send your CV and a 1-2 page cover letter describing why you are passionate about infrastructure consulting to our Office Manager, Marta Przybylinska, at marta.przybylinska@aecom.com by 31th August 2022.

We intend to announce a second scholarship of $5,000 in November 2022.

About AECOM

AECOM is the world's trusted infrastructure consulting firm, delivering professional services throughout the project lifecycle — from planning, design and engineering to program and construction management. On projects spanning transportation, buildings, water, new energy and the environment, our public- and private-sector clients trust us to solve their most complex challenges. Our teams are driven by a common purpose to deliver a better world through our unrivaled technical expertise and innovation, a culture of equity, diversity and inclusion, and a commitment to environmental, social and governance priorities. AECOM is a Fortune 500 firm and its Professional Services business had revenue of $13.2 billion in fiscal year 2020. See how we are delivering sustainable legacies for generations to come at aecom.com and @AECOM.

