

Drafting Cadetship

- Join the leading new home builder
- Gain exposure to drafting in the residential construction industry
- Kick start a corporate career within residential building and drafting in NSW in Canberra, Sydney (Norwest), the Hunter (Thornton), the mid-north coast or south coast

The NXT Building Group is a diverse and expanding organisation with over 1000 passionate employees whose purpose is to build better futures for our customers and employees. Established in 1987 with the iconic McDonald Jones Homes business and continuing to evolve both organically and through acquisition, we are well positioned for growth and committed to achieving our vision of being Australia's number one home builder.

Our McDonald Jones, MOJO, Weeks, Wilson, and Brighton businesses are the recipients of multiple Housing Industry Association and Master Builder Association awards for our innovative, luxury new home designs.

We successfully deliver over 4,500 new homes to our valued clients. From architecturally designed first homes and multi-residential projects to luxurious residences and investment properties, we strive to set the benchmark in the new home building industry while ensuring that our people, both customers and staff, are at the centre of everything we do along the way.

NXT Building Group and our business are committed to supporting the development of the next generation of talent within the construction industry. We offer many exciting career pathways in construction, sales & customer service, design, and corporate support in multiple locations throughout Australia.

About the NXT Generation Draftsperson Cadetship opportunity

The Draftsperson Cadet position reports to the Department Manager and is part of the Corporate Head Office Team at NXT Building Group. Your focus will be to work closely across multiple head office departments to gain exposure to all aspects of residential construction management and back-office support functions. More specifically, you will be mentored and coached in drafting.

About you

You will share a passion for our purpose and be aligned to our core values. In addition, you will demonstrate:

- Hold a relevant tertiary qualification in business, commerce or similar/or be willing to obtain
- Demonstrate customer service, leadership and a proven record of problem solving
- Excellent communication skills - both written and verbal
- Goal oriented, self-motivated, and able to work within a team environment
- Ability to liaise across a wide range of external stakeholders

mcdonald jones

- Hold a current driver's licence, have your own transport and be willing to travel to different sites

Our commitment

Business Operations Cadets will be provided with a buddy and a supervisor, and we will work closely with successful candidates to map a long-term career path within our organisation.

We believe that our employee community is a key strength of our organisation, and we aim to attract the best talent to achieve our strategic goal of being Australia's number one leading home builder and Employer of Choice in our sector. Our leaders create inclusive teams and value the individual contributions of our employees. We value safety and integrity, and we lead the way in innovation and building better futures.

Interested?

The appointment of successful applicants will be subject to satisfactory employment screening and depending on the inherent requirements of the role, may involve the completion of a National Police Check and pre-employment medical.

Apply today!

If you are determined to make a difference and want to join an innovative and inclusive organisation committed to building better futures, email your resume to careers@nxtbg.com.au with "Drafting Cadetship ACT" in the subject. To find out more about NXT Building Group go to nxtbg.com.au and mcdonaldjoneshomes.com.au or follow us on LinkedIn

-