Section 6: What happens next?

Each pre-selection form will be considered as part of the selection process and applicants will be short-listed on the basis of the pre-selection form.

Short-listed applicants will be notified of their status mid-November 2016 and will be invited for a folio presentation in late November or early December of 2016. Do not send a folio with this pre-selection form.

Folio presentation session – (date and time to be confirmed)

Bring a selection of 15-20 of your best photographs to the November or December folio presentation session.

- Images can be varied in concept or subject matter or can be representative of a single exploration
- Prints should be between up to A4 (8"x10") in size (these do not have to be printed by you)
- Images can be digital, analogue, colour or black and white.
- If supplying digital files you must also bring a laptop or tablet to display them

International or interstate applicants who are unable to attend the folio presentation must email sue.cusbert@cit.edu.au .

Advisory letters will be sent to all applicants in January 2017.
