

JOBTRAINER

SHORT COURSE

Statement of Attainment — Hospitality Compliance [SITSS00052]

Overview

This course is designed to for people who want to gain employment or upskill in the hospitality industry. The Compliance Skill set is a comprehensive online course covering a range of skills and knowledge required to provide services in industry, including:

- responsible gambling services
- responsible alcohol services - serving and refusal of alcohol
- basic hygiene practices for food safety
- controlling food hazards.

Subject Information

- SITHFAB002 — Provide responsible service of alcohol
- SITHGAM001 — Provide responsible gambling services
- SITXFSA002 — Participate in safe food handling practices
- SITXFSA001 — Use hygienic practices for food safety

Campus

Online/CIT Reid

Duration

This course is to be completed online and you will be allowed up to 18 weeks to complete the online readings and assessments. You are required to attend CIT to complete practical assessments within the simulated work environment. This practical assessment may take up to four hours to complete over the duration of the 18 weeks and will be arranged upon enrolment with your teacher.

You will be required to complete some additional hours of independent study, including online activities and assessment.

Course commencement options

- Ongoing enrolments

Information

For more information on courses and eligibility, visit cit.edu.au/jobtrainer or contact us on:

Individual Enquiries

CIT Student Services — (02) 6207 3188

Industry and Business Enquiries

CIT Business Development — (02) 6205 3298
citbusinessdevelopment@cit.edu.au

Please check the website for the most up to date information.

Job Trainer is a jointly funded initiative of the Commonwealth, state and territory governments, offering free vocational education and training to young people (17 to 24 years, who have finished school), and job seekers across Canberra. Places are limited and you must meet eligibility requirements.