

If you enjoy high quality Scandinavian designed furniture and homewares (think Marimekko) with an emphasis on good value and genuine customer service then we would love to hear from you. We are looking for someone with a warm and friendly disposition who genuinely enjoys engaging with others, has retail expertise and holds a strong interest in interiors and design. This casual position is available at our Braddon showroom and is suited to a candidate with confidence in working with a diverse client base. The role is up to 10 hours each week including alternate Saturday/Sunday

About us

The Modern Furniture store is a retail business specialising in high quality and well-priced Mid-Century and Scandinavian designed furniture and accessories intended for everyday use in the home or work. Key to our success over the past 13 years is our in-store experience supported by our talented team offering exceptional customer experience. We currently have showrooms located in Brisbane, Noosa Heads, Bowral, Melbourne, Sydney and Canberra with further expansion planned.

To get a better understanding of our concept, please visit us at www.themodern.net.au and <https://www.instagram.com/themodernfurniturestore/>.

Key Responsibilities:

- Drive sales and administrative tasks to support customer transactions
- Working towards team sales targets
- Provide exceptional customer service
- Impressing clients with your outstanding product knowledge

You will demonstrate:

- Strong sales skills with high standards of customer service
- Background in furniture and interior design is desirable but not essential
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Highly motivated and result oriented
- Ability to work well within a small team
- Experience in furniture and homewares styling highly regarded but not essential